UPDATE ANNOUNCEMENT

Financial Adviser to the Company

Bank of America The logo for Bank of America Merrill Lynch features the company name in a bold, dark blue serif font next to a stylized graphic of five upward-sloping lines of varying lengths, all contained within a thin blue horizontal border.

Reference is made to (1) the announcement of the Company dated 24 January 2017 in connection with the original Offer and the Whitewash Waiver (the “Announcement”); (2) the announcement of the Company dated 13 February 2017 setting out the revised terms of the Offer; (3) the announcement of the Company dated 26 May 2017 on further delay in despatch of the Offer Document; (4) the announcement of the Company dated 29 May 2017 in relation to the application to commence judicial review proceedings; and (5) the announcement of the Company dated 29 June 2017 in relation to the hearing dates of the Company’s judicial review application. Unless otherwise stated, capitalised terms used herein shall bear the same meanings as those defined in the Announcement.

As stated in the announcement dated 29 May 2017, the Company has applied to the High Court of Hong Kong (the “High Court”) for leave to commence judicial review of (i) the decision of the Takeovers and Mergers Panel that the granting of the Whitewash Waiver should be made conditional on the outcome of the Shareholder vote on the Offer (without adjustment), and (ii) the ruling that no question on whether the Whitewash Waiver should be approved should be put to a separate vote of Shareholders in general meeting (collectively, the “Ruling”). The leave application and the substantive hearing of the judicial review was dealt with together in a rolled-up hearing, which took place on 26 and 27 September 2017.

On 4 October 2017, the High Court has ruled:

1. The Company was granted leave to apply for judicial review of the Ruling.
2. The Company’s application for judicial review of the Ruling was allowed and the High Court made:
 - (i) an order of certiorari to bring up and quash the Ruling; and
 - (ii) a declaration that the scale-back provisions in section 19 of Schedule 1 of the Broadcasting Ordinance (the “scale-back provision”) apply for and to the shareholders’ approval of the Whitewash Waiver.

The declaration was made on the basis that the Ruling that the Whitewash Waiver should be made conditional on the majority of votes cast (without adjustment under the scale-back provision) at the general meeting of the Company in favour of the resolution to approve the Offer, and the question of whether or not there should be a Whitewash Waiver should not be put to a vote of the Shareholders in general meeting in effect requires the Shareholders’ approval of the Whitewash Waiver but in disregard of the scale-back provision.

3. The question of whether to grant a Whitewash Waiver to the Company should be remitted back to the Executive.

The Executive has, on 29 May 2017, granted its consent under Rule 8.2 of the Takeovers Code for an extension of the deadline for the despatch of the Offer Document to a date one week after the judgment of the court is given on the application for leave to apply for judicial review. The Company will be making an application to the Executive for a further extension of time to despatch the Offer Document. A further announcement will be made in due course regarding the outcome of the Company’s time extension application.

At this time, there is no certainty that the Offer will proceed. Shareholders and/or potential investors in the Company should therefore exercise caution when dealing in the Shares of the Company.
